

Seerat un Nabi (PBUH) and Uswa e Husna Guarantee Rights of the people and Societal peace.

(Lahore, 17 November) President Dr. Arif Alvi met delegation of ulemas representing different sects at Governor House Lahore. Governor Punjab Ch. Muhammad Sarwar was also present at the meeting. President stressed on the need to highlight true essence of Islam while projecting Islam's inherited positive, polite and peaceful aspects. The President reiterated the fact that Government is the determined guardian to protect Namoos e Risalat. Government will consult ulemas to play their effective role so that Tahafuz e Namoos e Risalat and Blasphemy Laws are not misused. Ulemas should fully cooperate with the Government to ensure that sacred notions are not misused to create conflicts, aggression and destruction of peace in the country. The President Said that Government is not considering any change in clause 295 C of Blasphemy laws.

Alama Ayub Safdar on behalf of Ulema's delegation assured that Ulemas will extend all possible help to ensure peace of the country and will cooperate effectively to make Pakistan a welfare Islamic state.

The President said that the Government is not considering any proposal to accept Israel. The President further said that the process of registration of Mosques and madaras will be smoothened and facilitated as per laws so that registration process gets completed soon.

Governor punjab Ch. Muhammad Sarwar said during the meeting that Government will protect Namoos e Risalat and Government is not considering any proposal to accept Israel.